

WIFE OF SLAYER TELLS OF TRIALS

Mrs. William Miller Says Mrs. Saylor Pursued the Doctor.

WIFE BEGGED SIREN TO END RELATIONS

Murdered Banker is Buried at Crescent City, Ill.— Probing the Case.

Blairsville, Pa., July 14.—Clasping her twelve-year-old boy and with the tears streaming down her cheeks, Mrs. L. Cora Miller, wife of Dr. W. L. Miller, now being held on the charge of killing Vice President J. B. Saylor, of the First National bank of Crescent City, Ill., last Sunday night, told her story of the affair to the Associated Press today.

"I have known of my husband's intimacy with this woman for two years and like Mr. Saylor, rather than let the world put shame on my boy, I kept silent. I pleaded with this woman to let my husband return to his family and was laughed at for my trouble."

Ran After Miller.

"For two years Mrs. Saylor ran after my husband and turned him away from his family. The couple went away together on several trips, telling me of their experiences afterward."

Two years ago, or shortly after we removed from South Sharon, Pa., to Crescent City, my husband one day told me he wanted to have Mr. and Mrs. Saylor call at our home. I met Mrs. Saylor. For months my husband insisted that I call upon Mrs. Saylor, even after I had been warned that my domestic happiness was in jeopardy.

"Rather than let the friends we had made in Crescent City see that I was even cognizant of my husband's fondness for this woman, I kept up my social duties with her."

Served Notice on the Woman.

"However, after a year of hypocrisy on both my part and this woman's, I told her frankly that the scandal in which she had dragged my husband had come far enough and that I would tell the world what I knew and try to regain my husband's love. I love him still and stand ready even now to go to him in his trouble. I wired the sheriff at Watseka today that I stood ready to come at once if needed."

"I left Crescent City only last Wednesday, a week ago, and thought that if I stayed here quietly with my mother, perhaps my husband would miss me and want me back with him. I did not hear of the shooting until Tuesday and then indirectly. I have nothing officially concerning the affair."

Perplexed in Her Trouble.

"I don't know hardly where to turn in my trouble. The doctor's affairs are tangled. I know he has little or no money to employ lawyers for a defense. However, I will stand by him to the last for I love him better than I do my life."

Mrs. Miller was married to Dr. W. L. Miller thirteen years ago this July 16, in Blairsville. One child was born to the couple a year after the marriage. Dr. Miller is a graduate of the medical department of the University of Pittsburgh, and practiced in Blairsville for a number of years. He is well spoken of here professionally. Dr. Miller also practiced in Danforth, Ill., and South Sharon, Pa., before removing to Crescent City. A brother of Miller is postmaster at South Sharon.

SOME OLD FRIENDS OF MISS GINGLES

People Who Knew Lace-maker in Canada Appear in Chicago Case.

GIRL FACES THEM WITH GOOD NERVE

Witnesses on Hand to Tear Down Girl's Claim to Virtuous Past.

Chicago, July 14.—Dr. W. G. Gibson, superintendent of the Belleville hospital, of Belleville, Canada, David H. Thornton and Walter E. McCormick, also of that city, arrived in this city today and were expected to give sensational testimony in the trial of Ella Gingles, the young Irish lace maker.

"These witnesses will give testimony which I believe will completely shatter the defense of Miss Gingles," said assistant State's Attorney Short. "Dr. Gibson will testify that Miss Gingles is not the pure innocent girl that she has been trying to make people believe she is. The witness will swear the girl was employed at his home as a cook under the name of Ella Raymond and that while there she stole several pieces of linen. McCormick is a photographer and will also give important testimony."

Photographer as Witness.

Walter Ernest McCormick the photographer, the first witness, testified that he took a photograph of the defendant some time in June or July last year. When asked by Assistant State's Attorney Short if he knew the girl, he replied that he did not know her under that name. He said she had given him the name of "Miss Wilson."

McCormick identified the dress worn by Miss Gingles when the picture was taken, which Mr. Short said belonged to Mrs. Thornton. "She stole that dress didn't she?" asked Attorney O'Donnell, cross examining the photographer.

"I don't know," responded the witness.

Judge Brentano would not allow further questioning along that line and David S. Thornton, was then called.

Saw Thornton Without Flinching.

The presence of her former employer failed to unnerve Miss Gingles. She sat facing the witness and continually clasped and unclasped her hands.

"Do you know Miss Gingles?" inquired Mr. Short.

The witness replied that Miss Gingles was employed as a cook at his home, she having come from Montreal.

"Did she become ill?"

"Yes, a week after she came to my home."

Mr. Thornton then explained the nature of the girl's illness and detailed the necessity of an operation at that time.

While he was speaking Miss Gingles bowed her head and seemed about to break down.

"Did you ever see Miss Gingles in a man's company?"

"Yes. Once I saw her jostle a man near our home and kiss him many times."

"Did you take Miss Gingles back after she had recovered at the hospital?"

"Yes sir."

"And you left her in charge of your home?"

"Yes sir."

"Where was the silverware?"

"Locked up."

ALL READY FOR THE BARN DANCE

—From the New York Herald.

HARD FIGHT MADE IN THAW HEARING

Strenuous Endeavor Afoot to Protect Thaw's Late Talk With Wife.

MANY WITNESSES IN THE INQUEST

Lawyer O'Reilly Likely to Make Evelyn's Testimony Useless.

White Plains, N. Y., July 14.—The promised reappearance of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw as a witness for the state attracted a big crowd to the supreme court room long before the resumption today of the inquiry into Harry K. Thaw's mental condition before Justice Mills.

The state's representatives declared today that they had found more proof, by studying the case over night, to show that conversation between Thaw and his wife at Mattewan asylum, in which the state contends he threatened to kill her, was not privileged.

Justice Mills ruled yesterday that if this was satisfactorily shown by the state he would instruct Mrs. Thaw to answer Deputy Attorney General Clark's question regarding the threats which were blocked yesterday by the objection of Thaw's counsel, that the conversation was confidential and privileged.

District Attorney Mack said that Mrs. Thaw would be recalled at the afternoon session.

Mental Survey in Open Court.

Thaw's counsel asked that he be given twenty-four hours notice in which to produce his alienists prior to the physical examination of the plaintiff by the experts. This was contested by Mr. Clark. Justice Mills remarked that the mental examination of Thaw by alienists should be conducted in open court with Thaw on the witness stand.

District Attorney Mack, in cross examining witnesses, has been careful to ask if the witness has ever talked with them about the killing of Stanford White or the ruining of young Gries. Invariably the witnesses had declared "that a delicate subject" and it had "not been approached."

It is the state's theory that one of the essential characteristics of paranoia, of which Thaw has been declared to be suffering, is that the patient may only exhibit pronounced insanity when the one subject which was the cause of the mental derangement is brought to his mind.

Former Counsel Summoned.

Daniel O'Reilly, formerly counsel for Harry Thaw and later personal counsel for his wife, Evelyn, was subpoenaed by the state to appear this afternoon.

Deputy Attorney Clark said the state would submit a brief on the subject of the contested confidential conversation between Thaw and his wife, contending that O'Reilly, who was present at the time, was not then acting as counsel for both parties, and therefore the conversation was rendered unprivileged.

If Justice Mills should rule against the state, O'Reilly will be called and examined on this point by Mr. Clark and the way cleared, if possible, for the resumption of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's testimony.

Thinks Thaw Rational.

At the afternoon session Dr. Valdemar Sillio, a New York practitioner testified that he had seen Thaw about 25 times in all and talked with him upon these occasions. He had treated Thaw for insomnia and examined him as to his mental condition. He saw him frequently in the Tombs in New York prior to and during his trials for homicide. Thaw always appeared rational.

PUZZLED WHAT TO DO WITH WOMAN

Authorities Do Not Wish to Press Case Against Mrs. Bump.

WILL BE ALLOWED TO RETURN HOME

Isolation and Domestic Unhappiness Had Made Her Despondent.

All indications today point to the ultimate recovery of Mrs. Ralph Bump, who is a patient at the Lutheran hospital suffering from the effects of a self-administered dose of carbolic acid which she swallowed Sunday night after she had administered morphine that caused the death of her baby.

"She says she wants to get well, now," said her husband today, "and I don't believe that she will every try anything like that again. I think, and all the folks down around here think, that she must have been out of her mind when she acted as she did, as there was nothing else to make her do it."

"I was within fifteen feet of her when she told me she took the acid and we had just finished supper and she said nothing right then that sounded like she wanted to kill herself. She hadn't been eating hardly anything for a week and it just seemed like she didn't have any ambition to do anything."

Although she is being carefully guarded at the hospital, Prosecutor Albert E. Thomas has not filed any proceedings against her and for the present he will file none.

Wants Her Released.

"Personally I want to see her released and before I do anything I am going to see her folks and arrange for a bond so that an affidavit can be filed and she can be placed in charge of the members of her family. Then when the grand jury meets the whole matter will be gone through with before the jurors and if they want to return an indictment against her all well and good. She ought not to be kept in custody under the circumstances and I heartily wish I was through with the whole business."

Mr. Thomas does not relish the idea of prosecuting the woman and is in some doubt as to what is the best course for him to pursue. There will be a charge filed against her, but development will govern him in the future disposition of the case.

The husband said his wife had made no statement to him or any other member of the family before she left home other than to say she was tired of living and this seems the only reason for the crime. She had little strength and no ambition and she evidently concluded life was not worth living.

Bruce Merchant, the father of the unfortunate woman, came to the city this morning from his home in Zanesville, Ind., and will aid the husband and brother in keeping constant vigil at the bedside, as they still fear another attempt by her to end her life. The coroner has not made any further investigations in his search for a cause for the crime and is evidently satisfied that the act resulted from despondency.

GLADENITES TAKE AN EARLY START ON THIRD LEG OF BIG RACE.

Chicago, July 14.—The Gladden tourists began their third day's run of the annual reliability tour shortly before 7 o'clock today when Chairman Hower's car left the Auditorium Annex headed for Madison, Wis., where the automobiles will stop for the night. The confetti car followed about a half hour later and it was expected it would finish the route to Madison, a distance of 175.2 miles, at least an hour ahead of the official pace-maker. Shortly afterward the cavalcade of automobilists resumed their journey, causing considerable excitement as they tooted their way through the down town streets.

HURT IN NOTHING BUT HIS FEELINGS

Gen. Picquart, French Minister of War, Thrown from Horse.

HALF MILLION SAW HIM GO TO GRASS

Celebration of July 14 in Paris Has a Feature Unlooked For.

Paris July 14.—General Picquart, the French minister of war, was thrown from his horse during the annual military review today at Longchamps which was one of the features of the celebration of July 14, the national fête day, in Paris.

The accident occurred in front of the six thousand troops drawn up before the presidential tribune and in the presence of half a million spectators. Just as Gen. Picquart, who was mounted on a mettlesome white stallion, galloped to the head of the line followed by the various military attaches, his horse shied and threw him, as he was about to enter a planned cap and gold band, described a circle over the animal's head and landed on the green sward.

General Not Hurt.

Fortunately he was not hurt. He remounted his horse and the review was continued.

During the maneuvers two dirigible balloons, the République and the Ville de Nancy sailed over the field. The national fête was being celebrated throughout France in the usual manner. There was popular merry-making together with the delivery of patriotic speeches. M. Deroulede and the league of patriots, following their customary practice, decorated the statues in Paris to the lost Rhine provinces and M. Deroulede delivered his usual fiery address setting forth the necessity of recovering Alsace-Lorraine.

VON BUELOW'S SUCCESSOR.

Kaiser Names Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg Chancellor.

Berlin, July 14.—Dr. Von Bethmann-Hollweg was today appointed chancellor of the empire in succession to Prince Von Buelow.

Emperor William arrived in Berlin this morning at 5 o'clock on a special train from Kiel. He received Prince Von Buelow in the small garden of the Berlin palace, where the two men could be seen from the bridge across the Spree, as well as from the Burgstrasse. The emperor shook the prince warmly by the hand and the two walked up and down the garden for three-quarters of an hour in an animated conversation. It was noticed that his majesty occasionally grasped Prince Von Buelow by the arm.

TOUCHED IN HOT SPRINGS OFFICE

Watters Lost His Wallet While an Attendant Rubbed Him.

MAN ARRESTED AND MAKES CONFESSION

Detective Lenz Put Thief Through Sweat and Got Cash and Admission.

James Watters, who has been taking treatment of the Hot Springs doctors, at Harrison and Wayne streets, was robbed last night of his pocketbook containing $29 by Joseph L. Kelso, an attendant, who was giving the victim an electrical treatment in the establishment and today Detective Lenz arrested the thief and secured a confession and the return of the greater part of the money.

Wanted No Publicity.

The detective had a lot of trouble getting his man to confess, but he was kept busier answering telephone calls from the Hot Springs office asking him to be sure to keep the story out of the newspapers, as they said, they were anxious to avoid any notoriety in the matter.

Watters is a laborer and he was being given electrical treatments for a lame back. He went to the Hot Springs establishment about 8 o'clock last night, went from there to his brother's home and then to his boarding house at 1322 South Calhoun street. When he reached for his pocketbook, which he always carried in his hip pocket, it was gone and he reported the matter last night to the police.

Finally He Confessed.

This morning Detective Lenz took up the case and went down to the Hot Springs establishment to make an investigation. He questioned Kelso closely, but he denied knowing anything about it until he was finally put through a sweat at headquarters, when he confessed and was locked up. He has been boarding at 903 Barr street with his wife, and she had part of the money, which was recovered. He had concealed $2 at the Hot Springs office and this was also recovered, and the pocketbook was found in the new Shoaff building, where it had been thrown by Kelso.

The man has been in Fort Wayne about three weeks and had lived in Muncie, Kansas City and a number of other places before he came here. He would not give a very good account of himself and when his wife called at headquarters later during the day she was not allowed to see him.

TO KEEP WATERS PURE.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 14.—Under an order from the office of Attorney General Bingham, received today by H. E. Barnard, state food and drug commissioner, the state board has the power to proceed against all persons who are found polluting the waters of Lake Michigan within an area extending ten miles north from the extreme end of the lake. This action is of the utmost importance to the cities which obtain their water supply from Lake Michigan.

KILLED ERRING WIFE.

Altoona, Pa., July 14.—Frank E. McMillan, aged 31 years, killed his wife aged 25, at their home in Greenwood, a suburb last night with one of a fusillade of shots directed at William E. McDonnell, said to have been the woman's paramour. McDonnell escaped unharmed.

JULY WHEAT HITS UP NEW HIGH MARK

Cereal Goes to $1.27 Bushel in the Chicago Board of Trade.

SHORTS BID OPTION UP 5-CENT RAISE

Is Highest Mark Touched by July Wheat Since Patten Corner Began.

Chicago, July 14.—Wheat for July delivery sold on the board of trade today at $1.27 per bushel, a gain of 7 cents over the final figures of the previous session. The advance was due to a stampede among shorts who were alarmed at the delay to harvesting in the west and southwest.

This price eclipsed by 6 1/2 cents the previous high point for the season. The bulge was due to extremely urgent desire of many traders to cover short sales in view of the poor prospect of any considerable movement of new wheat to market this month, owing to rains having interfered with harvest operations in the west and southwest.

No Wheat in Market.

The market for the July option has been in a congested condition ever since the closing of the celebrated "deal" in the May delivery, and when traders sought to buy the July wheat today there was almost none to be had. The price at the opening was up 1/4 to 1 1/2 c. compared with yesterday's close. Initial quotations ranging from $1.21 1/2 to $1.24 1/2. The price continued to advance by leaps of 1/4 to 1 c. at a jump. When the price touched $1.25 a big shout arose.

"There she goes," shouted one trader.

"That will win many a bet," yelled another, as he hurriedly left the pit.

The climax seemed to have been reached at this figure and the price sagged somewhat on realizing sales.

BOY TAKES 25-FOOT FALL OFF TOP OF ELEVATOR

Ellsworth Jarett Injured While Cleaning at the Randall Hotel.

BOY TAKES 25-FOOT FALL OFF TOP OF ELEVATOR

While he was cleaning the top of the Randall hotel passenger elevator, 25 feet above the ground floor this afternoon, Ellsworth Jarett, a young man residing at 1636 Oakland avenue, leaned over too far and plunging forward, turned a somersault and alighted with his hands upon the heavy glass sky light above the office on the first floor. The sky-light was broken and the boy fell to the ground floor on top of the glass. His hands are somewhat cut and he complains of a few bruises about his body but as yet no serious injuries have been discovered. The accident occurred a few minutes after 2 o'clock.

Young Jarett had been cleaning the top of the elevator and the shafts beginning at the ground floor. The car was lifted bit by bit until it stood three or four feet above the second floor landing. It was from that position that Jarett fell. In a few minutes he was walking about the lobby of the hotel again but later was put to bed.

The glass in the sky-light is of extra heavy thickness and it was fortunate for Jarett that he fell on top of it instead of the glass upon him as where the largest piece struck, a big hole is rent in the office floor.

LITTLE TOWN AGAIN LOSES HEAVILY BY FIRE

Big Grain Elevators and a Hardware Store Burn at Dixon.

LITTLE TOWN AGAIN LOSES HEAVILY BY FIRE

[Special to The Sentinel.] Dixon, O., July 14.—This little town on the Ohio-Indiana state line at the eastern edge of Allen county again suffered heavily by fire this morning when flames completely wiped out the Dixon grain elevators and the A. Dieterich hardware establishment, entailing a loss that will approximate $20,000, partially covered by insurance. The origin of the fire is unknown. It was discovered at 2:30 o'clock this morning in a shed in the rear of the hardware store. Facilities for fighting the fire were meagre, and the flames licked up the hardware store and then swept across the street to the grain elevators. From the latter the safe and about half a carload of flour was gotten out, but the hardware stock is a total loss. Mr. Dieterich's stock was valued at $9,000, and upon it he carried $5,500 insurance.

The hardware building was owned by M. A. Clem. It was a frame structure, worth perhaps $3,000, and was insured for $2,000. The grain elevator was owned by the Dixon Grain company, composed of Earl Marshall, of Dixon, and Mr. Long, of Convoys, and was valued at $1,500, and the company is fairly well protected by insurance. The burned buildings were all on the Indiana side of the line.

Dixon has been singularly unfortunate in the matter of fires within the past five years. The elevator destroyed today is the third to burn within that time, in addition to a church, a residence and two store buildings.

ELKS MAY NOT ACT ON ELK TOOTH EMBLEM

Do Not Feel Responsible for Death of Animals—New Officers.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 14.—When the grand lodge of Elks resumed its annual meeting today reports of committees which have investigated various questions before the order were made.

The question of wearing emblems of the order, containing the teeth of elk, will not be acted upon by the grand lodge. The report of the committee which has investigated this matter was to the effect that the members of the lodge are in no wise to blame for the rapid extinction of the elk.

This report will detail the exhaustive investigation of the subject made by the committee. Other committees to report were those which have investigated the question of a change of location for the Elks' home and the creation of a much more pretentious and commodious structure; the committee on the matter of establishment of an orphanage and the committee which has investigated the laws passed in regard to the use of Elks' emblems by lodges of colored Elks.

The amusement program for today was carried out at Long Beach, where thousands of the visitors went to partake of a barbecue and to witness yacht and motor boat races, and to enjoy a ride on the ocean. A grand ball will be given at Long Beach tonight.

Hermann Loses Fight.

J. U. Sammis, of Lemars, Ia., was elected last night grand exalted ruler of the grand lodge. The fight for the office was confined practically to two candidates, Sammis and Harry Herrmann, the Cincinnati baseball manager.

Sammis' candidacy was endorsed by retiring Grand Exalted Ruler Rush L. Holland, of Colorado Springs, who is a relative in a letter he wrote the Iowa man. This letter was circulated by the Sammis supporters and Holland acknowledges having written it.

Other officers of the grand lodge were elected as follows:

Leading Knight—Warren C. Sayre, Wabash, Ind.

Lecturing Knight—J. D. Jones, Scranton, Pa.

Secretary—Fred C. Robinson, Duquesne, Ia.

Treasurer—Edwin R. Leach, New York.

Trustee—Perry A. Clay, Denver.

Tyler—Charles L. Dicker, Bemidji, Minn.

Inner Guard—A. M. Taylor, St. Augustine, Fla.

The balloting for grand exalted ruler resulted in no election, four candidates being voted for and no one receiving a majority. J. L. Preston, of Wyoming, received 325 votes. Another ballot will be taken tomorrow.

The vote for grand exalted ruler was extremely close, Sammis receiving 592 votes and Herrmann 529. The only other contest was over the office of grand exalted lecturer knight. Harry Walter, of Philadelphia, and J. D. Jones, of Scranton, Pa., were nominated.

Detroit was chosen by acclamation as the place for the grand lodge meeting next year. St. Louis and Portland, Ore., the only two cities actively contending for the meeting, withdrew before the vote was called.

JOHN SPICE PASSES AWAY AT AGE OF 91 YEARS

Pioneer Fort Wayne Man Dies at Avilla Tuesday Evening.

John Spice, pioneer Fort Wayne man, former superintendent of the Allen county infirmary and well known citizen, died at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday evening at the Old People's home in Avilla. Mr. Spice had reached the age of 91 years. His health had been slowly failing for some time, and in June when the aged man expressed a wish for a change of scene he was placed in the institution at Avilla, where every care was given him during the days which closed his long and active career.

Mr. Spice's life was one of remarkable activity and usefulness. He was a native of Harlip, England, born January 23, 1818, worked on a farm until his twenty-first year and then enlisted in the British marine corps, serving in this branch of the English navy fourteen years. Then he embarked in the bakery business, but was only measurably successful and determined to try his fortunes in America.

He made the voyage in the old sailing vessel, "American Congress," reaching New York April 21, 1854, worked for a time on a farm in that state and then at Savannah, Ga. In 1855 he returned to England and brought to America the family for which he sought to make a home in America. They located first in Rhode Island and later in Erie county, New York. It was in 1882 that Mr. Spice came to Allen county, beginning life here upon a farm in Lake township.

In 1888 he was appointed superintendent of the Allen county poor farm, filling this place for twelve years. Then he embarked in the pump manufacturing business and later in the plumbing business with his son, Robert Spice. For many years Mr. Spice had lived a retired life at his home on Runyon avenue, where he was surrounded by the ones he loved so well.

Mr. Spice possessed a remarkable memory to supplement his fine education and natural intelligence, and he was a most interesting character and a charming conversationalist. He had been a member of the Methodist church since boyhood. He had been twice married, and is survived by the wife and two children—Robert Spice, of this city, and Mrs. Fannie Deffenbaugh, of Burr Oak, Mich.

The remains will be brought to Fort Wayne tomorrow.

BRUICK.

John Bruick, a well known Adams township farmer, died at his home six miles south of the city at 11 o'clock Tuesday night at the age of 79 years. Death was due to the infirmities of age.

Mr. Bruick had been a resident of Allen county many years and was widely known. He is survived by the wife and the following children: Henry, Carl, Christian and August Bruick, Mrs. George Lepper and Mrs. Henry Koehlinger.

Funeral services Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence and at 2:30 from Emanuel Lutheran church at Seest.

HARRY THAW MADE IN THAW HEARING

lional and spoke coherently and intelligently, the witness said.

Dr. Sillo related a conversation with Thaw at Matteawan in which Thaw referred to an incident at the Hotel Knickerbocker in New York in which Evelyn Thaw figured and afterward threatened to sue the hotel managers for damages.

"That would be very foolish of her," the witness said Thaw told him. "I regret very much she persists in keeping herself so much in the public eye, but what can I do? I have done everything I can for her."

Mrs. Elizabeth McMillan, an elderly woman, of St. Louis, who said her husband was a Presbyterian clergyman and that she had known the Thaws for many years, Harry Thaw for thirty-eight years, testified to visiting Thaw at Matteawan.

"We played dominoes, four of us, and Harry won and it pleased him very much," the witness said.

"Harry Thaw is the kindest man who ever lived," Mrs. McMillan volunteered.

O'Reilly's Purpose.

Daniel O'Reilly, the former Thaw lawyer, who was subpoenaed by the state, testified before he was called as a witness that he intended to testify that he was acting as counsel for both Harry Thaw and his wife at the time of the disputed conversation at Matteawan, at which time the state contends Thaw threatened to kill his wife when he got out. This apparently would preclude Evelyn Thaw from answering the questions in regard to the three

RACE IS STRENUOUS BUT OUTCOME A QUESTION

Guessers Slow to Hazard Cash on Democratic Primary Result.

With the race for the democratic nomination for mayor going at a terrific clip as it nears the final week before the primaries on July 23, some idea of the closeness of the contest is obtained from the declaration that none of the men of betting proclivities has as yet indicated a willingness to hazard his cash on the outcome of the nominating primary.

Despite the apparent sublime confidence of some of the candidates and their friends, the situation is undoubtedly "up in the air," and seasoned politicians admit that at best the guess on the result at present is merely a long chance. None of those with money to wager on the outcome is willing to take it until there is a more pronounced clarification of the political outlook.

It is an extremely lively pace Messrs. McCulloch, Scherer, Melching and Schmidt and the friends who are close to them are setting in the campaign. Despite the oppressive heat of summer all the candidates are working with intense vigor, and their organization machinery is in operation early and late in the effort to get the vote lined up for the contest which occurs a week from Friday. Each of the candidates is holding from one to three meetings nightly in the various wards. Some of them are talking to shopmen during the noon hour. And all of them are working all the time.

Just as an example of the activity, all of the candidates or their representatives were in attendance at a gathering Tuesday evening in the hall of the Precious Blood church, where a post-Fourth of July celebration was held. At the same time, each of the candidates found time to hold at least one meeting of his own in some part of the city during the evening. The Scherer gathering was held at Nimrod hall on East Main street, and many men active in labor circles were in attendance. It is said that for the most part the meetings have been largely attended.

One thing that appears to be a source of universal apprehension on the part of the candidates is the question of getting out the vote at the primary. In past years a lamentably small percentage of the voters has taken sufficient interest in nominating caucuses, though the adoption of the percentage system by the democrats a few years ago brought improvement in this respect. There is to be a tremendous effort made in the present instance to get out the vote, and several of the candidates have already chartered conveyances and secured workers for each precinct on the date of the primary. The fact that the annual excursion of the S. F. Bowser & Co. employees to Winona occurs on the date of the primary will inevitably lessen the vote in the Eighth and Tenth wards, but it is believed that the mayoralty aspirants will suffer about equally in this regard.

The canvass for the clerkship and the city court judge is not developing so much noise as the mayoralty chase, but it is going forward just as assiduously. In the democratic clerkship battle are A. J. Muldoon, David C. Stout, John G. Noll and Oswald Stahl, while candidates for the police court bench are H. W. Kerr, F. H. Kleekamp, A. L. Griebel and William Fruechte-nicht.

Most of the republican leaders are picking Jesse Grice to win the republican mayoralty nomination, but Judge B. W. Skelton, his opponent, is doing a lot of good campaigning and says he is confident of winning. Judge Skelton's supporters declare there will be some surprises when the result of the count is announced.

Two of the more recent democratic aspirants for the city council are Joseph Hausbach, of the Sixth ward, and Louis Miller, of the Fourth ward. Both are popular machinists in the Wabash shops.

Representatives of the voting machine manufacturers are arranging for a series of meetings at which primary election officials will be given thorough instruction in the operation of the voting machines to be used hereafter in Allen county.

Perhaps the most important meeting of the democratic city central committee scheduled during the year will be held next Monday evening at the city hall assembly room. It is expected that the party platform, dealing with the municipal issues now before the people will be adopted at that time, and candidates will give their pledges.

MAN BESIDE HIM KILLED.

Law-Book Seller in Chesterton Wreck Visits Fort Wayne Friends.

A number of Fort Wayne attorneys were paid a visit today by J. T. Barnett, selling law-books for the Bobbs Merrill company at Indianapolis, and incidentally they heard some tales that as one lawyer said, "almost make your hair turn gray."

Mr. Barnett was riding in the interurban car that was completely smashed in the Chesterton wreck some time ago and though he himself was not more than severely injured, the man riding in the same seat with him was killed by a beam striking his skull. Four men in front of Mr. Barnett who were sitting in seats turned toward each other were all killed in an instant by the stove in the front end of the car. Mr. Barnett's injuries consisted of bruises about the body and his ankle was sprained and he says it was a marvel that he ever escaped. Mr. Barnett often "makes" Fort Wayne and the local men who know him experienced considerable anxiety regarding his injuries when the first reports came out. He started to work again just several days ago and is on his way to Lake Wawasee today.

DAY AT CORNER ROD CLUB PRIZE FOR JONES' TEAM

Membership Contest Among Buffaloes is Settled by a Close Margin.

Frank Jones' team in the membership contest which has been going on for the past sixty days among the members of the Corner Rod and Gun Club, held No. 20, was acclaimed the winner in the results given out last night over J. V. Wilson's team, although the men captained by Mr. Jones had secured but two more members than their opponents. The results were 43 and 41 new members respectively. As a reward for their efforts, the winning team men will be the guests at a big social gathering at the Corner Rod and Gun Club grounds probably on the first of August.

To this affair the sweethearts, wives and children of the members will be welcome so that the day will be one long to be remembered. It is up to the losing team members to furnish the entertainment and they have already started to make plans with a hearty will. There will be the usual ball game, athletic contests and sports as well as entertainment for the ladies and children.

The membership of the lodge has been augmented to near the 180 mark in the contest and there are still some applications on file which have not counted in the contest.

CHINESE WILL NOT AID IN CAPTURE OF LING

Government Authorizes the Masons to Have No Hand in Giving Him Up.

Denver, Col., July 14.—Chinese here say that their government, following the report of the Chinese consul at New York on the Elsie Sigel case, has set the seal of official approval on the protection of Leon Ling by the Chinese Masons and that he will never be found with the aid of his countrymen.

A Chinese newspaper, having the unofficial sanction of the Chinese government, has reached Denver, in which the report of the Chinese consul at New York is printed in full.

The report, after citing the facts of the case as generally known, stated that it had been discovered that Elsie Sigel went to Leon Ling's room.

In a moment of desperation she took her own life by poison. Ling, the report states, was absent at the time and found the body of the girl upon the bed when he returned.

Fearing Lynching.

Frightened by the discovery, he called Chung Shin, says the report, who advised him that should he tell the truth to the police regarding the findings of the body he would not be believed and probably would be lynched. Frightened by this view of the case, Ling adopted desperate efforts to dispose of the body and conceal his own whereabouts. The report is evidently regarded by the Chinese as revealing the true facts of the case and the Chinese Masons are giving permission and encouragement to conceal Leon Ling.

A member of the Chinese colony here said today: "Only God can find Leon Ling. He is under the protection of Masons and is being aided by them in his effort to escape the police. Unless further facts come to light proving his guilt he will never be delivered to the officers by his own people."

Mrs. William Dowdle and daughters Miss Garnet and Miss Florence, have returned from an eastern trip, including the Alleghenies, Pennsylvania, Buffalo and Niagara Falls, where they spent some time with friends and relatives.

Attorney John G. Yeagler, of Angola, was in the city today.

worth living, according to the officers who were called to her home in dealing with the case. The house is poorly furnished and contained nothing but the things that were absolutely necessary and she spent a great part of her time there alone.

The husband runs a threshing machine and has started out as soon as harvest began every summer and remained away until fall with only an occasional visit home. She was left most of this time with her three children and this fact probably weighed upon her mind and made her tired of living. In addition to this she had not enjoyed the best of health and while the husband denies that there were any serious family troubles it is said that all was not pleasant in the household.

Before her present marriage she was in love with a man who is now employed as a brakeman on one of the railroads here and who earns a good salary. She married Bump after he had joined a church and done everything in his power to win her and she has grown dissatisfied and labored under the belief that she had spent ten years of drudgery and that ten years or more was all that she could see ahead of her and this weighed upon her until she determined to end it all.

The husband has secured a room near the hospital and will remain with his wife until she is able to leave the hospital. He is greatly distressed about the sad tragedy that has wrecked his home and there were tears in his eyes when he talked of his wife.

Brother Discovers Expectations.

"My brother, J. B., used to keep a diary when a boy," said Willis Saylor today. "But I believe he had discontinued the practice. We have found none in the house and I don't think there is one in his bank. I think the box will be found to contain nothing but business papers. This would include a record of his co-partnership in the bank, his insurance papers for $6,000, some deeds to farm lands and records of the estate of his niece, for which he and I are trustees."

"A thick carpet in the parlor of the Saylor home may hide important evidence in the case. It has been testified that the first shot was followed by an interval of silence, then came three more in quick succession."

What the Carpet Will Prove.

If shots were fired at the banker's prostrate form it is believed the floor will show it. The carpet, left undisturbed on account of the funeral, is too thick to show a rent. It will be torn up today or tomorrow and the floor examined. The course taken by the bullets would seem to indicate one of two things—either they were fired when Dr. Miller was under Mr. Saylor or when the latter was prone on the floor. Evidence which may prove to be of importance was discovered today in the Saylor home. It consists of blood-stained garments belonging to it is said, to Dr. Miller, Mrs. Saylor and John C. Crunden, who is Mrs. Saylor's father. These were turned over to State's Attorney Paulsari, at Watseka.

The blood is said by the prisoner to have come from Dr. Miller's wounded wrist, which bled profusely.

Sheriff Helkes received a message from Mrs. Miller, wife of the doctor, today, stating that she stood ready to return to help her husband if needed. Business houses closed at noon to allow everyone to follow the hearse to the cemetery. The local Modern Woodmen and Odd Fellows, without regalia, marched in the procession.

WOMAN FINALLY BREAKS DOWN.

Widow of Banker Sheds First Tears Since the Murder.

Watska, Ill., July 14.—Arrangements today for the funeral of J. B. Saylor, the banker who was slain at Crescent City last Sunday night, were simple and did not include the presence of the widow, who with Dr. W. L. Miller, the alleged slayer, is in jail here.

Up to last night it is said Mrs. Saylor did not shed a tear but she broke down when she received a call from Thomas Saylor, of Chicago. According to her visitor, she wept bitterly, and expressed a desire to attend the funeral today. She renewed the request today, but was refused.

"Feeling against her and Dr. Miller at Crescent City, while unfriendly, has lost its violence," said the sheriff today.

Justifies Slayer of Parent.

Golda Saylor, seventeen-year-old daughter of the murdered banker, has come to the defense of her father's slayer. Her action and yesterday's developments so aroused citizens of the village of Crescent City that it was feared a mob might be formed there to come to Watska and attempt to lynch Dr. Miller. There has been talk of lynching ever since the killing and the girl's statement has strengthened this to a great extent.

"Dr. Miller was a good friend of mother's and mine and I'm sure he killed my father in self-defense," the girl said, and this statement added fuel to the flames of conjecture already raging, making it seem more likely to the Saylor's neighbors that the husband was slain as the result of a plot between his wife and her supposed admirer.

Daughter's Story Shocks Neighbors.

That the daughter should have been drawn into the plot, as some of the neighbors infer from her defense of her father's slayer, is what most has aroused the men and women of Crescent City.

What makes the girl's championship of Dr. Miller unusually tragic is the fact that during his life her father was a most devoted and indulgent parent and generally was believed to be ignoring his wife's alleged intimacy with the physician because he preferred

BOARD WILL ALLOW SHERIFF IN AND OUT FEES

Have Been Disallowed Up to This Time—News of the Courts.

At the end of a consultation in the commissioners' court today in which County Attorney Hoffman and Sheriff A. M. Reichelderfer took part it was decided that what is known as in and out fees will be allowed to the sheriff hereafter when he renders his accounts to the board. The fees are 25 cents each for locking up and releasing each prisoner and the matter has been in the courts for several years.

It was decided at one time that the sheriffs were not entitled to them and then the last legislature enacted a law providing that they be paid, but payment has been held up awaiting a ruling on the law but none has been made. Other counties from which information has been obtained are allowing the fees.

Jamison Files an Appeal.

Eugene Jamison, who pleaded guilty in the city court when the raid on the Kleindinst gambling establishment was made in a personally conducted excursion with the mayor as the chief promoter and who was fined and sentenced to jail in the city court, has appealed his case. He left the city after he gave bond for his appearance.

It is likely that his presence is desired by the owners of the gambling outfit seized at the time of the raid, who are making a strong fight against its destruction under the order of the city court.

Court Notes.

A jury was secured yesterday in the case of William Cass against Samuel R. Alden and the trial began this morning in the superior court.

The hearing in the liquor license case of Adolph King was continued a week.

The sixth of the new cars purchased for use on the Fort Wayne city lines has been shipped from Cincinnati and will arrive within a day or two. Those already here are being rapidly placed in commission.

"And the linen?"

"In the attic."

"Why did Miss Gingles leave?"

"She said her sister was dying in Chicago."

Dr. W. J. Gibson, who attended Miss Gingles in Belleville, Ont., was then called as a witness. The defense objected to his testimony, but the court overruled the objection. Dr. Gibson testified regarding the physical condition of the girl at the time he attended her at the Thornton home, and when asked if he knew Miss Gingles, he pointed his finger at the defendant and said, "Yes, that is she."

BUMP CASE REPEATS.

Des Moines, Ia., July 14.—Mrs. William Olyphant, living near West Branch, Ia., despondent over family troubles, gave her four little children strychnine last night. Later she telephoned Dr. Leach to save the children, but let her die. An infant died soon after the doctor reached the house. The mother and the other three children may recover.

MORE TROUBLE FORESEEN.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 14.—At 4 o'clock this afternoon the strike at the Pressed Steel Car company's plant became general. There are 6,000 men on strike. A large number of the men are foreigners. L. J. King is intense and further trouble is feared tonight. Officials of the company have asked for 200 special deputies.

Final hearing will be held August 5 on the petition for discharge by Albert N. Grant under the bankruptcy act.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

The absolute vegetable purity of S.S.S. has always been one of the strongest points in its favor, and is one of the principal reasons why it is the most widely known and universally used of all blood medicines. A great many of the so-called blood purifiers are really nothing more than strong mineral mixtures which act so unpleasantly and disastrously on the delicate membranes and tissues of the stomach and bowels, that even if such treatment purified the blood, the condition in which the digestive system is left would often be more damaging to the health than the original trouble. Not so with S.S.S.—it is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and at the same time is an absolutely safe and harmless remedy. It is made entirely of the healing and cleansing extracts and juices of roots, herbs and barks, each of which is in daily use in some form by physicians in their practice. Years of work and research have proven S.S.S. to contain everything necessary to purify the blood and at the same time supply the system with the purest and best tonic effects. S.S.S. cures Rheumatism, Gout, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Scrofula, Contagious Blood Poison and all other blood troubles, and it leaves the system in perfect condition when it has purified the blood. Book containing much valuable information on the blood and any medical advice desired sent free to all who write.

Eskimo Boy Who Declares He Will Lead His People to the North Pole.

New York, July 14.—"I am going to lead my people to the North Pole. I do not believe Mr. Peary will ever find it."

These were the last words from Mene Wallace, a young Eskimo, who was brought here by Commander Peary a dozen years ago, and who started on a long journey to his Greenland home.

Mene said he expected to find the North Pole with his people long before Commander Peary gets through the Arctic ice pack in his ship, the Roosevelt.

Mene's wanderings and vicissitudes of fortune have attracted much attention and excited considerable sympathy in this city, where he attended the Manhattan college, at Broadway and One Hundred and Thirty-second street, up to several months ago.

Mene was adopted by William Wallace and carries back home with him the Americanized name of Mene Wallace. William Wallace, Jr., and Chester L. Beecroft, faithful friends of the young Eskimo, were at the pier of the Red Cross line when Mene departed for St. Johns, Newfoundland, on the steamship Rosalind.

Charles F. Silverside, a Lake Shore railroad detective, was stabbed to death by traps Monday night in a box car on a train near Otis. Silverside had been sent out of Chicago on the train to guard a carload of copper which was shipped eastward.

A. P. Moste, of Garrett, against whom five "blind tiger" indictments were returned at Auburn some months ago, put in an appearance Tuesday night with his attorneys, entered a plea of not guilty and gave a $200 bond in each case. He was a brewery agent at Garrett, and has been in Chicago since the indictments were returned.

Angola people in the vicinity of the ball park there have signed a petition asking for the prohibition of ball games, claiming that the language used by the crowds is objectionable, that the lawns and gardens in the vicinity are molested and that the noise of the games keeps people from sleeping or reading in the homes in the vicinity. The matter was taken before the town board, but the councilmen took no action.

George Porter, 19, living two miles south of Wabash, has been arrested on a charge of issuing fraudulent checks. Worthless paper was cashed by W. J. Creighton, Gaylord & Bum-bauer, George Lumare, the Cottage saloon, the White Front saloon, Harris Clothing company, John Christman, Charles N. Connor & Co. and J. H. Baker & Co. It is said that others are suspected of being implicated with young Porter in the work.

BOY ACCUSED OF FORGERY.

Finds First Attempt So Profitable, It is Said, He Tries Again.

Tipton, Ind., July 14.—Lester Mann, 18, forged checks, it is alleged, to the amount of $25, visited Indianapolis and took in the sights Sunday. He found the game so profitable that he tried the trick over again. It is said, and also stole a watch and chain from Mrs. J. Altair. He was leaving for Kokomo to visit a circus when apprehended. The lad will have his trial on the charges of forgery and larceny Friday. He was recently paroled from the reform school at Plainfield, to which place he had been sent for robbing the Lake Erie and Western depot at Hillshurst. The boy had been employed at the round house in this city.

For Sake of Humanity He Suffered Hardships

Was at Last Rewarded by Great Discovery.

The great scientist devoted twenty year of his life to travel and study for the betterment of humankind and was at last rewarded by a discovery that is today filling hundreds of homes with health and happiness. Hundreds of letters of thanks are being received from every direction; and while money is a much needed thing the scientist in an interview said: "I would gladly give every dollar I have and every dollar I ever expect to have if all people now suffering with stomach trouble, liver and kidney troubles understood the wonderful merits of Root Juice. It is a compound that heals and tones the blood-making and blood-filtering organs. It creates a healthy appetite, prevents fermentation of food in the stomach and bowels, cleanses the system, stops bloating, belching, and heartburn. It removes all causes of constipation and kidney symptoms. In after effects of a gripe, when the general health is bad, Root Juice has a truly wonderful toning action on the whole system. The great remedy is sold for $1 a bottle at Bradley Bros. the successors to Wagner drug store, just north of transfer corner.

The climax of a quadrennial municipal campaign brought on in dog days doesn't have the trade mark of time tried wisdom.

Theodore Roosevelt is now on the trail of the elusive digdig. Probably has had that in his mind ever since he started out to give the country that isthman canal.

Harry Thaw and Evelyn Thaw—are we never to have done with them? They persist in the news to a degree no president or ex-president ever thought of doing.

Prosperity is coming back, doubtless on the prospect that the tariff grilling is nearly over, but perhaps in spite of it. At all events prosperity is coming and he is a dumb standpatter who cannot explain that the paymore principle is opening the way.

Begins to look as though the shah of Persia was getting ready to join the European colony of illustrious has-beens—Castro, Reyes and our great and good friend Abdul Hamid, together with others more or less notable. Democracy is leavening the national spirit of Persia and the blow-up is not likely to be long delayed.

The Wrights are proceeding leisurely to show the impatient army officers at Fort Myer that heavier than air aviation is as yet far from a cock-sure thing. The Wrights have achieved wonderful results, but with the latest and supposedly best of their flying machines they have so far had many mishaps, though not in any instance an accident in any wise disastrous. Man in common with a bird is a biped, but he isn't yet a flyer by several long shots. The Wrights evidently are going when the going looks good.

Governor Marshall keeps right on finding things here and there in state institutions and keeps also right on consistently declaring that the laws of the state must be observed. And there is much in that. Over-riding the law even in matters that appear to be trifles begets finally a nullification of the law in matters that are not trifles. A higher standard of public service is being established under the vigilant eye of the governor, who is getting for thanks the purely gratuitous accusation from some quarters that he is merely playing politics.

President Taft may veto the tariff bill if, as it comes from conference, it does not suit him, but the probabilities are not strongly of that color. To veto the measure would be merely to express his personal dislike of its provisions and of the failure of its party in congress to redeem its platform as well as its candidate's public promises on tariff revision. The underlying idea of tariff or any other legislation is not that the president be suited, but that the people's welfare be conserved and the public needs met. Mr. Taft can just as well express his disapproval of the measure by refusing to sign it, just as his great predecessor, Mr. Cleveland, did in the case of the Wilson-Gorman tariff reform bill. That measure was so completely emasculated and bedeviled in the senate that Mr. Cleveland was made violently angry by the flagrant betrayal of the party promises and he denounced the bill in the form it finally passed as an example of perfidy and dishonor. Yet he did not veto the bill as on many sides he was urged to do. It became the law without executive signature. And if the Payne-Aldrich (mostly Aldrich) bill finally passed in such form as to displease President Taft he is not likely to go any farther in his expression of disapproval than Mr. Cleveland went. It may very well be borne in mind, however, that in the central west the call for revision—honest, downward revision—has been clamorous and insistent. The president may listen with much heeding to the voice of the west, Indiana, Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska and Kansas must continue to be reckoned with in national elections. And this is Mr. Taft's first term.

RESCUE SAILORS AT SEA WHEN NEAR THE END

Thrilling Story of Saving Men from the Bottom of the Ocean.

New York, July 14.—After spending three days and two nights on the dismantled hull of the two-masted schooner, Drusie, which had capsized in midocean in a southeasterly gale, Capt. Thomas James, his crew of three men, and a 13-year-old boy, son of the vessel's owner, were rescued, famished and almost frenzied by thirst, by a boat's crew from the steamship America, which brought them into this port Monday afternoon.

For more than an hour after the overturning of the little 100-ton schooner by a sudden shift in the gale, the men, who, by great good luck, had been able to scramble to the weather side of the beam ended hull, were forced to cling to chain plates and wheel spokes while huge seas broke over them, threatening dislodgment.

Water Supply Lost in Sea.

Finally the masts snapped off flush with the deck, the schooner righted, and the men were able to crawl about. But when they looked for provisions they could get only a few cans of tomatoes. Fresh water there was none, for the butts had been smashed by the pounding seas.

The Drusie, though classed as a schooner, was of that peculiar rig known to the deep water mariner as a "Jackass brigantine."

Spirited and picturesque was the story of the disaster as told a reporter by Capt. James. The Drusie sailed from Paspheblac, Quebec, on June 29 for Barbados. Besides himself, the craft carried his brother Samuel, Thomas Hayes, steward, Charles Barrett, foremast hand, and John C. Lequesne, jr., son of the owner.

Sudden Shift Brings Disaster.

Last Wednesday the southeast wind strengthened to a fierce gale. Hove to under shortened canvas, the little vessel made fair weather of it until Thursday morning.

Mountainous seas were sweeping from the southeast when, at 6 o'clock, the wind suddenly veered to the south-west, blowing with the same hurricane force. "I thought we'd sink, so I went to the cabin to look after the boy," said Capt. James. "Just as I got into the cabin the vessel capsized. The cabin was flooded, and a heavy sea banged the door of the youngster's stateroom shut. I had to chop it open with an emergency ax.

"After getting him out I dragged the boy to the companion way up the perpendicular deck. There we clung to the wheel.

"Once a huge sea broke his hold on the wheel and dashed him against the taffrail, but I reached out, grabbed him with one hand, while clinging to a spoke of the wheel with the other, and drew him back to safety.

"Although the gale did not moderate until the following day, toward noon we managed to rig a jury mast fifteen feet high at the foremast stump, and hoisted a red and white bed counterpane. Capt. Schlauffin, of the American, saw it and came to our rescue. Chief Officer Emanuel Fulle, who commanded the lifeboat, set fire to the wreck and it was blazing fiercely when we left it hull down on the horizon."

Coney Island Crowd in Panic.

The Pegasus, of the Iron Steamboat company's Coney Island fleet, was coming up on the last trip an hour before sunset Monday evening, with many passengers from the pleasure grounds, when in a heavy patch of fog inside Norton's Point it ran its nose under the seaboard anchor chain of the big German tank steamer Phoenix, swinging with mud hooks down in Gravesend bay.

There was a sharp snap as the pole at the bow of the steamboat went over the side, then a rending of the rails on the promenade deck. Somebody screamed. There was a rush of passengers out of the cabins, where the fog had driven them. When they saw the loom of the big German close alongside the passengers on Pegasus showed signs of breaking into a panic.

Captain Reassures Crowd.

Capt. Jacob Wise, up in the pilot house, sent the order down to the engineers for full speed astern and got his first and second mates down to the decks in record time to go through the crowd and reassure everybody.

Nothing serious happened. Capt. Wise had his boat backed out from under the anchor chain and away into the lifting sheds of fog before anybody aboard the German tank steamer knew what had happened. The passengers debarked at Battery landing in safety.

650,000 SCHOOL CHILDREN TO CHEER SAN FRANCISCO.

Acting Mayor Makes That Promise on Request That City Participate in Portola Festival.

New York, July 13.—Acting Mayor Patrick F. McGowan has received Mr. Robert A. Roos, the special commissioner from the city of San Francisco, and representative of the Portola Festival, which will take place in that city beginning October 19.

Commissioner Roos' mission to the acting mayor was to invite the city of New York to take an official part in the celebration which is to mark the one hundred and fortieth anniversary of the discovery of the Golden Gate. The festival will also celebrate the complete rebuilding of the city of San Francisco since its destruction through the earthquake and fire, several years ago.

Mr. McGowan promised to do all in his power to have the city take an official part in the celebration and said he would recommend to the board of education that on the day of the opening of the celebration the 650,000 school children of this city should give a rousing cheer for the city of San Francisco and its public schools.

Commissioner Roos also asked Acting Mayor McGowan to issue a proclamation inviting all New Yorkers to join in a toast to the city of San Francisco on the day of the opening of the festivities. President Taft promised Commissioner Roos, personally, that he would frame the toast which would be repeated throughout the country.

The festivities which are to be held in San Francisco will be the greatest that have been on record in that city.

FINE PROGRAM FOR NEXT WEEK AT WINONA

Eminent Speakers are to be There—Some Fine Musical Features.

Winona Lake, Ind., July 14.—Next week's program opens with a strong promise for another splendid week at beautiful Winona. The bible hour, which has been the most largely attended in the history of Winona Assembly, will be conducted by Rev. C. L. Scofield, D. D., and Dr. Frank N. Palmer. Both Dr. Scofield and Dr. Palmer are eminent authorities on biblical lore and are excellent speakers. The classes meet in the Auditorium at 11 o'clock every morning. The tuition is free.

The Newsboys' band, of Indianapolis, will furnish the orchestral music during the week. This far-famed juvenile organization of fifty splendidly trained musicians has been engaged by the Winona Assembly for several seasons, and always meets with a hearty welcome. In point of talent the band measures with the more pretentious bands of the professional class. The week's program will be brimful of tuneful music. The band is in more demand than any other in Indiana. It has been practicing for months upon solos and special features for its program at Winona. Concerts will be given every afternoon and evening.

On Monday afternoon a fine organ recital will be given by the organist and quartet choir of the Second Presbyterian church of Indianapolis.

The educational hours (4 p. m.) during the week will be conducted by Prof. Logan Esary, A. M., principal of the Vincennes High school.

D. W. Robertson, with his wonderful lifelike moving picture exhibition, will occupy the platform of the Auditorium Monday and Tuesday evenings. Tuesday afternoon, Nicola, the magician and illusionist, with a small menagerie of small animals, fish and fowls, will be the entertainer. Nicola's reputation is such that there is no need to exploit the charm and skill of his wonderful powers. Nicola will be assisted by Miss Marguerite Sutton, a psychic marvel, and Herman Holmberg, the irresistible "Dobski."

Fort Wayne's Little Tin God

Speaking of the local LITTLE TIN GOD, known as the City Waterworks, the fact is the City is providing at a low price a liquid UNFIT FOR DRINKING OR HOUSEHOLD USE, that would be dear at half the price.

It is providing it in quantities SO SMALL that the City never has enough for all its PUBLIC SPRINKLING NEEDS and private users have to be warned yearly into economical use, otherwise GOING WITHOUT, even in the matter of lawn sprinkling.

For lawn sprinkling that water is a great success—it even saves on fertilizer bills.

It is also recommended for buggy washing and extinguishing fires. For fires, however, the lack of sufficient water pressure compels a universal dependence on the steam fire engines, an expense that is saved in cities enjoying up-to-date water service UNDER PROPER PRESSURE.

The TENDENCY TODAY is away from that dependence on fire engines and TOWARDS DIRECT ATTACHMENT to the hydrants. It is a tendency that Fort Wayne can never profit from so long as its present system of waterworks and sources of pressureless supply are continued.

It cannot go to the proper sources of supply and properly utilize the same without the expenditure of, IT IS ESTIMATED, fully ONE MILLION DOLLARS.

Fort Wayne has NO MILLION DOLLARS TO SPEND THUS.

So THERE YOU ARE, fellow citizens of Fort Wayne.

Not only are our waterworks not giving us quality and quantity, and right pressure, but there is no power in MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP to remedy their shortcomings.

We are getting something through pipes that is wet; that we can use in officially limited quantities for laying dust and fertilizing lawns; that we can, at taxpayers' expense, force upon fires; and that we can, at private expense, use as the raw material out of which to produce a water for part of the household uses.

This is PRETTY POOR MATERIAL out of which to make our Little Tin God—even "WITH MIGHT AND MAIN."

But isn't it a very cheap Tin God to bow down and worship as the MOST EXALTED product of MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP in Fort Wayne?

Instead of a little Tin God, how much better to see it in its true light as a warning-post set at the forks of the road.

You recall the guide-post in a western mining region at the forks of the road, reading on the signboard on one side:

"This road dangerous, take the other."

And on the other:

"Take this road at risk of your life."

Well there are the two paths marked out by municipal ownership of waterworks.

Don't compare our waterworks with others if you wish to believe in our own. That is the lesson of "As Now is Our Waterworks."

HOSPITAL IS DEDICATED BY RT. REV. BISHOP ALERDING

Prelate Officiates at Imposing Ceremonies in Logansport.

RT. Rev. Herman Joseph Alerding, D. D., bishop of the diocese of Fort Wayne, officiated at the dedication of the new St. Joseph's hospital at Logansport this morning. The ceremonies were most imposing and besides an immense gathering of the laity, many of the neighboring pastors and assistants were in attendance. The new hospital is one of the best appointed institutions of its kind in the state and is one of which the diocese may well feel proud. The Sisters of St. Francis will be in charge of it. On Sunday the bishop conducted similar ceremonies at Hammond.

August 1 the local prelate will officiate at the reception of novices at St. Joseph's hospital in Fort Wayne, at which time a number of sisters of the Order of the Poor Handmaids of Christ will also make their vows. The following day a meeting of the diocesan school board will be held at the Episcopal residence, Bishop Alerding presiding.

On the Feast of the Assumption Sunday, August 15, Bishop Alerding will celebrate pontifical high mass at St. Mary's of the Lake, Notre Dame, Ind., and will officiate at the reception of novices.

Rev. A. E. Lafontaine, diocesan school superintendent, is in Boston attending the sixth annual Catholic educational convention, which is being held there this week.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH NOTES.

Third Church to Arrange Tonight for Season's Lecture Course.

Enthusiastic over the success that attended the conduct of its initial lecture course in this city a year ago, the Third Presbyterian church has decided to continue the good work this year. Plans towards this end are already under way and five numbers will constitute the program for 1909, continuing into the first or second month of the new year.

O. B. Stevenson, representing a combination of Lyceum bureaus, is a visitor in the city and desires to meet the men of the Third church this evening at the close of the devotional service in order to close the contract for the talent for the course for the coming season. Hence the pastor, Rev. Dr. Frank M. Fox, would especially urge the attendance of the men tonight, for it is hoped to make the forthcoming lecture course a great success.

The month of August will be the pastoral vacation period at the Third Presbyterian church and during the absence of Rev. Dr. Frank M. Fox the pulpit at the Sunday morning services will be occupied by Rev. T. P. Potts, of the Bible Training school. Rev. For the remaining Sunday evenings of July Rev. Dr. Frank M. Fox will conduct the Sunday evening services of the Third Presbyterian church on the lawn west of the church. LEADER OF OUTLAW MOROS DIED IN BATTLE of the Struggle.

Fell Fighting Desperately
Against Troops—Story

Manila, July 14.—Jikiri, the Moro outlaw chieftain, killed and his band exterminated on July 5, died game in the last ditch, according to dispatches and letters from American officers who fought against the outlaw.

Hunted from place to place by the regulars and constabulary, who had been in close pursuit for days, Jikiri, with seven followers, two women and one child, took refuge in a cave in the side of the crater of an extinct volcano. Here the outlaws gathered to make their last stand. As the soldiers came up the scouts located the party and the troops worked their way around the place until it was entirely surrounded.

Women Do Share of Fighting.

Capt. George L. Byram, of the Sixth cavalry, who commanded the attacking force, then ordered a white flag displayed, and through his interpreter called upon Jikiri to surrender. The outlaw refused and declined also to accept a safe conduct for the women of his party, who remained with the band and bore their share of the fighting.

Byram ordered up the guns and a terrific shell fire was opened on the cave. The missiles broke above and around the opening, but the ledge protected those inside from the fire and little damage was inflicted.

Storming parties worked their way up the steep slope and, finding footing on the ledge, endeavored to rush the larger entrance to the cave. The fighting for a few minutes was desperate, but the outlaws drove their assailants back by a savage spear charge. The soldiers were not to be routed, however, and taking up their posts at the end of the ledge poured a terrible fire into the mouth of the cave, the bullets glancing from the rock walls and throwing showers of sharp splinters of rock among the besieged.

How Outlaw Met His Doom.

Jikiri himself singled out Lieut. Arthur H. Wilson, of the Sixth cavalry, who commanded one section of the attacking party. Dashing from the cave, the outlaw lunged himself upon the American before Wilson could raise his pistol.

With one hand gripping the officer's hair, the bandit slashed at his neck with the heavy knife he carried, endeavoring to behead him. Lieut. Joseph A. Baer, of the Sixth cavalry, saw his comrade's peril and ran to his aid.

As Jikiri swung back the knife to strike again, Baer shot him dead and Wilson dropped to the ground. It is feared that Wilson will be incapacitated for further service in the army, as the muscles and cords of his neck were severed by the bandit's knife.

May Have Wounded Own Men.

Writing of the fight, American officers say that in the desperate hand to hand encounter on the narrow ledge some of the assailants may have been wounded by their own fire. In their anxiety to save each other they were forced to shoot quickly with high power rifles at close range, which are doubly dangerous, as the bullets will plow through several men.

Hundreds of friendly Moros saw the fight at close range. They perched among the rocks where they could see the ledge and not a movement escaped their eyes. Many believed Jikiri bore a charmed life. They would not be convinced he was dead until they felt his body.

CASUALTIES IN BATTLE.

Washington, July 14.—An additional list of casualties in connection with the fight against Jikiri has been received from Gen. Duval, commanding the Philippine division. John Hauser, troop A, Sixth regiment, U. S. cavalry, died on July 10 from wounds received in action. Additional names of wounded follow:

Edward Faragher, troop A, Sixth regiment, U. S. cavalry.

John Martin, Frank L. Perdue, William A. Miller, Richard Landgraf, troop B, Sixth regiment, U. S. cavalry.

William B. Fraley, Grover C. Steele, Fred Mayse, troop C, Sixth regiment, U. S. cavalry.

James W. McLaughlin, troop K, Sixth regiment, U. S. cavalry.

Louis McClelland, George F. Van Fleet, John C. Scott, Anatol Czarnocki, Artur Literbatsky, battery E, Second artillery.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE FOURTH WARD

At the solicitation of numerous friends I have consented to be a candidate for councilman on the democratic ticket, and I now ask your support for that office. If nominated and elected I will endeavor to serve all the people of the ward and city to the best of my ability.

LOUIS S. S. SCHROEDER.

ROSES FOR THE HAT.

Large clusters of roses in every shade, pink and cream color, damask red and ivory white, may be seen on picture hats in fine Leghorn straw, massed closely together in front of the brim, while round the crown there are soft draperies of black tulle. Other charming hats with brims of black crinoline are arranged with crowns of black spotted net, half hidden under a shower of moss rosebuds, some pink and some white. A dainty chapeau with a fairly wide brim of biscuit-colored straw has a crown composed entirely of loose-leaved pink roses and rosebuds. Encircling this floral crown there is a folded band of black moire ribbon, drawn on one side, through a diamond buckle.

BRIGHTENING FADED FROCKS.

Some one may have a pink cotton or linen dress all good, but badly faded. If so, put a piece of Turkey-red cheese-cloth in water, and boil till the color is right. The desired shade may be obtained by dipping a little of the dress in the water, and then when wet, and will leave an even color all over. One eighth of a yard is more than enough for a dress. Navy blue cheese-cloth may be used in the same manner to freshen the color of a light blue dress—Woman's Home Companion for July.

Deputy United States Marshal A. R. Walter, who has been ill for several weeks, is now reported to be improving rapidly.

POSED BY MISS TROUTMAN OF THE MIDNIGHT SONS OF THE FORT WAYNE

Summer evening gowns for public dining have round or square necks and the simplest of short sleeves. The styles of such costumes vary greatly, but the simple design of beautiful materials is always considered best taste. In this instance a mauve satin skirt is attached to an Empire waist of mauve chiffon laced with mauve sequins. From the mauve velvet girdle depend two long sash ends of black chiffon finished with silver head fringe. The hat is of black hem with mauve green aigrettes.

Both bride and groom are highly esteemed young people with many friends.

IN THE THEATERS

SHOW IS GENEROUSLY GOOD.

Little Japs and Other Features at Majestic Airdome.

This week's offering at the Majestic Airdome is rapidly winning the approval of big audiences at the popular summer theater, and the Little Japs with their acrobatic number, as well as other features of the bill, are becoming firmly entrenched in the favor of Fort Wayne people.

The performance of those three tiny Little Japanese artists is one of the prettiest offerings of the vaudeville season. Haley and Haley, who open the show, have a character singing act with changes that is much out of the ordinary. Arthur Khrens, the German professor, and Dave Ferguson, the polite entertainer, are extremely clever monologists, and Marquis and Lynn appear in a musical act. The illustrated song this week by Frank Jones is "There Never Was a Girl Like You." Two performances are given nightly—at 8 and 9:15 o'clock.

Black Satin Sash is Quite Smart.

In these days when no costume seems complete without a touch of black—a black cravat, collar, revers and cuffs on a coat, or piping on black on the frock—the black sash, of wide soft satin loosely arranged about the waist and hanging at the side is quite the smart wrinkle. It is worn with one-piece linen frocks in white and all colors—amethyst, lavender, dull blue, pink and green.

Sometimes it is of wide, black silk velvet ribbon, worn loosely about the waist, but fitting smoothly, finished at the right side with a rosette resting well down on the hip, and at the left with two ends coming from "w" around at the front and back and knotted at the knee, then finished with black silk tassels or cord ornaments. One girl wore a one-piece frock of lavender rough linen made on princess lines. With it she wore a sash of soft black satin run through two slender oblong hammered bronze buckles—one at back and one at the front—of ornate design with touches of enamel. The sash was caught at the right side with a stiff, brim, while round the crown there are soft draperies of black tulle. Other charming hats with brims of black crinoline are arranged with crowns of black spotted net, half hidden under a shower of moss rosebuds, some pink and some white. A dainty chapeau with a fairly wide brim of biscuit-colored straw has a crown composed entirely of loose-leaved pink roses and rosebuds. Encircling this floral crown there is a folded band of black moire ribbon, drawn on one side, through a diamond buckle.

Fort Wayne members of the Degree of Rebekah to the number of from fifty to seventy-five will go to Ossian Thursday evening to attend a meeting of the fraternity there.

AMERICAN ACTRESS REPORTED MARRIED WHILE ABROAD

MISS GRACE LA RUE.

Miss La Rue, who is an actress well known in certain theatrical circles, has just returned from Europe, landing at New York Friday from the Mauretania. It is reported that she was married while abroad to Byron Chandler.

A RUNAWAY MATCH.

Elopers See Some Exciting Adventures Ere They Wed.

Jeffersonville, Ind., July 14.—When George E. Harvey and Miss Edith May Long, a couple of Clayton, Ind., eloped from that place with the intention of being married in Louisville; they little dreamed that they would pass through many exciting experiences before being wed.

Arriving in Louisville they learned that under the Kentucky law the bride must be 21 years old before a license is issued her to marry.

Miss Long is but 19. They then ran across H. H. Munsch, a law clerk, who volunteered to escort them to this city in search of nuptial bliss.

As they left the ferry boat here Magistrate Charles S. Hay, it is alleged, approached them for the purpose of assisting them. Munsch interferred and he and Hay became involved in a fight. Hay caused a warrant to be issued against Munsch on a charge of assault and battery. Capt. M. E. Clegg also arrested him for violation of a matrimonial runner ordinance. He was released and acquitted on this charge.

Harvey and Miss Long, who, by this time, had been married by Magistrate Kelgwin, were detained until they could testify in police court on the assault and battery charge, after which they were permitted to go. The hearing on the latter charge will not be completed until tonight.

THE DETAILS AND THE STATISTICS.

Fort Wayne took the curtain raiser and the afternoon bill at League park yesterday afternoon in a couple of the best exhibitions of baseball that have been seen here this season. The first game was won by a score of 3 to 1 in an hour and twenty-seven minutes, while the second was a 2-10 victory, and the whole affair was over at 5:20.

William Robertson, prominent citizen of Coshoha, made a fine job in the first contest and did a good job, allowing but five hits, of which McKeechne got two and both for two bags. Walter Miller, who is living at Broad Ripple with a view of making it famous like he did Gas City, hurried in the second game and four hits were all he gave the Stogies.

Wheeling marked up the first counter of the first game in the fourth inning when Phil Phillips new outfielder, hit and stole second and got home on McKeechne's first double. McKeechne hit for two bases in the seventh, and was the only man to reach second after the fourth.

With one gone Channell hit for two bags in the second half of the fourth, and after Elston had been passed, Lindsay hit to right, scoring the Crestline product and putting the groundhog on the march. McKeechne's sacrifice fly sent Elston in.

Channell looped one of Johnny Fisher's shots over the right field fence in the sixth for the other run in the first game. Lindsay hit for a double in the same inning, but made a good throw to the plate on McKeechne's hit and cut down the runner.

In the second game Fort Wayne took the lead right off the reel. Frankie Donahue hit with Blount in the second, Channell followed with a hit to left and Elston walked one down (first base line for a double, which sent Donahue over the fence). The Stogies pulled alongside in the fourth when McKeechne drew a base and Miller threw wild to second. Elston's sacrifice bunt, McKeechne's hit to the right and Salm hit to right, scoring McKeechne.

Blount bunted and beat it in the sixth. Donahue moved him up with a sacrifice. McKeechne's hit to the right, Elston's sacrifice bunt to McKeechne with so much steam behind it that it carried off the third baseman's glove and Blount scored. The scores:

MAKING GOOD WITH THE PIRATES.

KELLEY MAKES GREAT DEBUT WITH THE SENATORS

South Bend Shortstop Has Two-Bagger to Credit—Other Games.

Vince Robbins, who has been out of the game since July 2, is again in condition, and will probably work in one of the double-headers with New Castle at League park next Sunday. Quinlan will play the first game for the Shamrocks.

The Lake Erie will run a special train to accommodate the New Castle fans who are coming to Fort Wayne next Sunday to see the crack Kelly-French club play the Shamrocks.

KNOLL RELEASES TWO MEN.

Alva Spangler and "Zeke" Ferras Given Their Releases.

South Bend, Ind., July 14.—Punch Knoll, manager of the Evansville Central league team, today caused a big surprise by releasing outright first baseman Spangler and pitcher Ferras. No reason is given for the act. Spangler last year won the pennant for Evansville by his great fielding and batting. Had the fact been known that the two men were to be released, Evansville management could have made a sale, as Dayton, South Bend and Fort Wayne are in need of a first sacker. Spangler will sign up with one of the teams today or tomorrow.

Orth Collins, purchased by Washington of the American league, from Buffalo, was recently sold to the latter team by Terre Haute, of the Central league.

AVIATOR WINS $2,800 PRIZE.

M. Blierot, Frenchman, Sails 25 Miles in 56 Minutes 10 Seconds.

Calais, July 14.—M. Blierot, one of the French aeronauts who has been planning to fly across the English channel, yesterday won a prize of $2,800, offered by the French Aero club, by sailing his aeroplane across country from Etampes to Orleans, a distance of twenty-five miles.

The time limit for the flight was six hours, but Blierot made the distance in fifty-six minutes ten seconds, elapsed time. This included a stop of eleven minutes near Tours to examine his aeroplane.

The aviator came down at the feet of the official timer. His descent was rather rapid, and the propeller of his machine sustained slight damage in the maneuver. His average altitude for the trip was one hundred feet. There was no ruling against his making a landing.

M'KECHNIE BATS ON EITHER SIDE OF PLATE

Biffs Them Too, at That, and Leads Team—The Games Yesterday.

McKeechne, third baseman for the Wheeling team, is one of the few batters who hits equally as well from one side of the plate as the other, and as a result left-handed pitchers have nothing on him as when one is presented he just hops across the plate and whistles away at the curves that bother most of the men who stick from the first base offense.

Take most left hand batters and the hand of their lives is a fast curve ball thrown by a southerner. They do not know whether it will hit them on the hip or break over the plate, and it keeps them guessing all the time. McKeechne does not have this concern and it helps him wonderfully in his stick work.

Fort Wayne's speed counted greatly in the two contests yesterday and the winning is due largely to the springing ability of Blount, Channell, McDermott and Elston. McDermott came across the diamond in the fourth inning of the first game and speared a ground ball for Blount. Channell, McDermott and Elston hit to center in the same inning and instead of checking up at first he saw the fielders loading a little on the ball and he beat it for second and made it, and was ready to score when Lindsay got a hit. He also wound up the game with two fast plays in the outfield.

Blount covered a lot of ground and beat one out in the second game that eventually developed into the winning run. In the first game Elston went to third from first on Lindsay's tap to right. This was a bit of nice springing and put him in position to score on McDermott's sacrifice fly. Part of the matter in the club has been going on the high speed clutch since it came home and it is showing in the net result.

The games were marred by two dramatic accidents. In the first Curt Elston hit a high four that went into the west section of the grand stand and struck Mrs. David Myers, of 701 Edgewater avenue, on the right forearm fracturing it. Owner Claude H. Varnell ordered a carriage and had her sent home.

In the second game, Elston routed another foul into the same section and the roots of the grand stand of East Wayne street and tore one of the knees. She was also sent home in a carriage by the owner.

After the game this afternoon the club will go to Zanesville for a series of three scheduled games and one postponement and will probably play a double-header on Saturday afternoon. Harry Corns will not be taken on the club as his arm is in bad shape and he will be left behind. From Zanesville the club will go to Wheeling and then to South Bend on July 27, to meet the St. Louis Americans.

Manager Hendricks said this morning he had made up his mind whether he would send Elston or Chickie against the Stogies this afternoon. There was a big patronage yesterday for a week day and the club was well taken care of by the roots. The fact that Elston's game is a reminder that Johnny Lindsay has been the pinch hitter on the home grounds. He has driven in a lot of runs with timely binging.

CENTRAL LEAGUE NOTES.

Over at South Bend the papers say that Angelo G. is being looked for by the big leagues as managerial talent and even so far as to hint that there is a possibility of his taking the toga of the Stogies in charge of the Dayton club. Nally has reported and is working in the outfield.

"Poo" Schriver, with New Orleans, has been at 110 times for a total of four runs and twenty-two hits, all of them singles. His average is .200; but he has yet to make a hit for more than one base. His fielding average is .925.

A sad scribble down at Zanesville comes out with the wise announcement that R. R. Kelly, bought from South Bend by Mike Kahoe for Washington, left at once and "caught for the Senators next day."

GO TO AFRICA TO HUNT.

American Nimrods as Well Equipped as Roosevelt.

Richmond, Va., July 14.—Armed and equipped almost as elaborately as Theodore Roosevelt when he began his voyage, Charles J. Ryan and James T. Sloan, sportsmen, will sail from New York next Tuesday for Africa. It is said their arms and ammunition represent an outlay of about $6,000.

They propose to follow Roosevelt's course into the jungle and may possibly meet him on their big hunt.

PIRATES WHALE THE DODGERS IN A SHUTOUT

South Bend Shortstop Has Two-Bagger to Credit—Other Games.

Detroit, Mich., July 14.—Three battery errors in the first inning, backed with a bad throw and Crawford's single, gave Detroit two runs and virtually decided the game. Washington played listlessly in the field and at bat, and was unable to do anything with Killian's pitching. Kelley made his debut with the Senators and made a good impression. The game was absolutely void of features.

COUNCIL ORDERS THE SIDEWALK TO BE BUILT

Tilt Over Creighton Avenue

Matter Enlivened—
The Proceedings.

But for the fact that Dr. W. M. Enslin made a fight at the regular city council meeting last night against the passage of an ordinance declaring a sidewalk on the south side of Creighton avenue from Broadway to Calhoun street a necessity the meeting would have been without a ripple as the proceedings were quiet and featureless with the exception that arrangements have been made to raise salaries next year.

Dr. Enslin said the sidewalk is not necessary and added that the members of the committee in charge did not ask him to meet with them. Mr. Welch called him on this proposition and so did Mr. Henry and when the matter went to a vote only the doctor and Member Rodenbeck voted against it.

Member Cook introduced an ordinance fixing the salaries of councilmen at $200 a year and that of the city civil engineer at $2,500 to become effective January 1st, of next year. It also provided for the payment of clerks' salaries semi-monthly. The ordinance went to the committee on fees and salaries.

The mayor announced his approval of the annexation ordinance, the ordinance fixing the salaries of the city treasurer and members of the health board and of a couple of small appropriation ordinances. An ordinance providing for the purchase of the Heiling property, consisting of three lots in Lawton park, for $2,700 was introduced and went to the committee on finance and on parks. The ordinance appropriating $15,000 for the extension of the electric lighting plant was passed.

Track elevation resolutions were introduced and both referred to the committee of the whole without reading. Louis Ohnhaus asked for an appropriation of $44 to pay for the damage to an automobile that was struck by one of the city fire trucks. The matter was referred to the committee on claims and the city attorney.

COMES RIGHT BACK.

U. S. Employee, Asked to Quit, Refers Officials to Hades.

Washington, D. C., July 14.—In connection with the general "shakeup" in the personnel of the department of commerce and labor growing out of disclosures of inefficiency on the part of some of its employees, a letter of unusual character has been received by an official of that department.

The communication is from an employee in the field service of the general lighthouse board, a branch of the department of commerce and labor. The letter was in response to one from the department calling upon this employee for his resignation for insubordination.

Promptly acknowledging the receipt of the letter, the employee declared that the official who asked for his resignation, Secretary Nagel, and the whole government could "go to h—l," so far as he was concerned, and signed the letter, "Disrespectfully yours."

The letter probably will be kept as a memento of the reform which Secretary Nagel is instituting in his department.

Out of 472 employees at the immigration station at Ellis Island, N. Y., more than one-fourth, or exactly 133, have been found to be below the standard of efficiency, according to an announcement made today. Of these 133 some will be dismissed, some reduced, and others reprimanded and warned.

HILDEBRAND IS BITTER.

Threatens to Kill Doctor in Letter Full of Taunts.

Hartford City, Ind., July 4.—Robert Hildebrand, the former Indianapolis bartender, who escaped from the Blackford county sheriff by leaping through the rear window at Marion and was afterward captured at the union station at Indianapolis, minus his handcuffs, wrote a letter and a postal card after he shed his handcuffs at Indianapolis. The letter is to Dr. W. L. Scott and the postal card, which was inclosed in the letter, is to Sheriff Clamme. Hildebrand was in the tolls again before his communications reached their destination.

In the letter Hildebrand repeated his threat to kill Dr. Scott. He taunts him with the failure to land him behind the bars and states that only the pleas of his (Hildebrand's) wife have saved the doctor's life so far. He charges Scott with breaking up his home and making him an outcast and fugitive because he had him arrested for stealing from the farm. He says Scott has ruined his life and that sometime when he is not looking for it he will kill him if he hangs for it.

Farmers in the vicinity of the Scott farm where Hildebrand was a tenant have a hesitancy about testifying against the prisoner, while others are friendly to him. For this reason it is believed that there will be some difficulty in convicting the man.

TWO ARE HURT IN RUNAWAY.

Horse Dashes Into Buggy, Throwing Man and Woman Out.

Wabash, Ind., July 14.—Frightened at a passing Wabash train, a horse hitched to a small wagon dashed down the steep Wabash street hill in the business section of the city yesterday, struck a buggy occupied by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Wildoner and hurled the buggy on the hillside, almost demolishing both rig and injuring both Mr. and Mrs. Wildoner. Mrs. Wildoner, the more seriously injured, was rescued with difficulty.

Importations of lobsters into the United States in 1908 amounted to $212,245 pounds, valued at $1,401,449, and nearly all from Canada.

How Money Is Wasted On 5-Cent Cans

When you get the right brand of Evaporated Milk, you are wasting one-third if you buy in 5-cent cans. Please read these facts and see.

Let us say at the start that every grocer has 5-cent cans of Van Camp's.
They are just as large as the 5-cent cans of vastly inferior brands.
And we sell more than of the 10-cent cans, because of mistaken ideas.
So, we don't give these facts to attack competition. They are simply to show how to get the most for your money.

Six Ounces for 5 Cents

All makers give six ounces of Evaporated Milk for five cents.

It matters not how much the milk is reduced by evaporation. It may be reduced as much as Van Camp's, or only partly as much.
All charge five cents for six ounces.
So you get just as much of Van Camp's for five cents as you get of the poorest brands on the market.
But you get but six ounces of say.

Sixteen Ounces, 10 Cents

In the 10-cent can of Van Camp's—the tall size—you get sixteen ounces of evaporated milk.

That means an even pint.

It means exactly one-third more for the money than you get in the 5-cent cans.

In Van Camp's you get 8 per cent of butter fat, about 28 percent total solids.
That is because we use rich, Holstein milk. And because we evaporate by far the larger part of the water.

If you put back the water which we take out, you get about three pints of very rich milk out of a 10-cent can.

And that rich milk will cost you, if you buy Van Camp's by the case, just about six cents per quart.

That's what you ought to pay.

But the same milk in 5-cent cans—even when bought by the case—costs you over eight cents per quart.

The Mistake Lies Here

You who buy 5-cent cans don't get the full good of Van Camp's.

You use it for coffee and cereals, perhaps. But you probably use raw milk in your cooking.

That is a great mistake.

Van Camp's is fully twice better for cooking than the average run of raw milk.

Raw milk always separates, for the butter fat rises and the solids fall. So raw milk used in cooking is rarely whole milk.

In Van Camp's you get the whole milk—all of the butter fat and all of the solids belonging to the richest milk.

Another Mistake

Then some people think that evaporated milk doesn't keep when the can is opened.

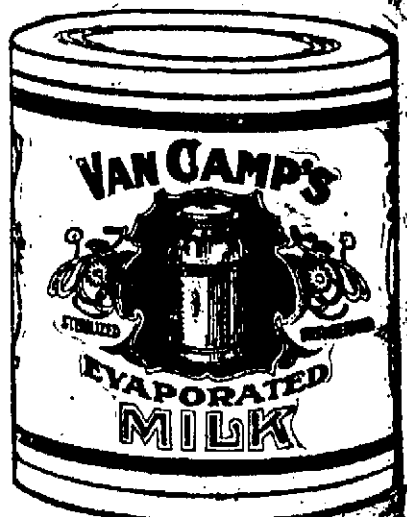

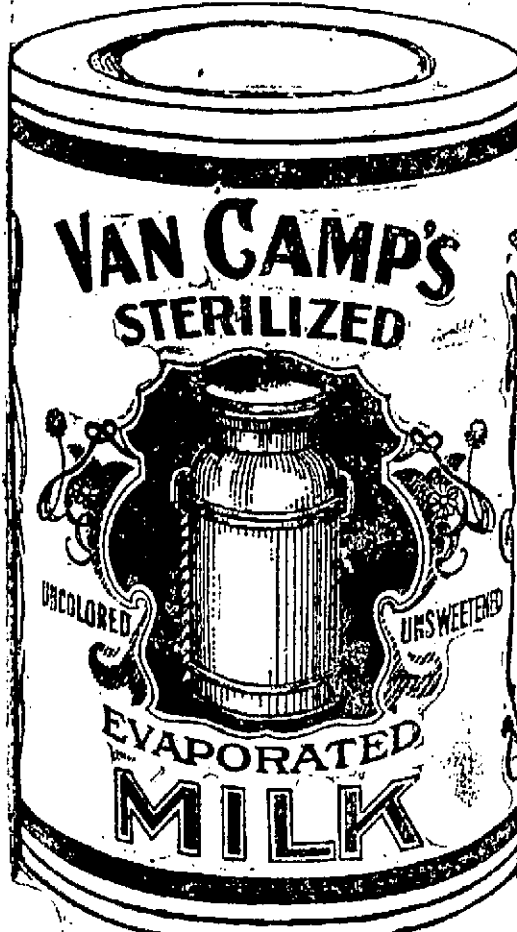

It will keep if you get Van Camp's. In usual weather it keeps 24 hours and it keeps 48 hours or longer on ice.

Keep it in the can until you use it up, for the can won't hurt it any.

In the long run, what is best for you is also best for us. That's why we publish these facts.

Get the most for your money. Buy the pint cans—the 10-cent cans. Then ask your grocer to quote you his discount by the case.

You save money by buying 48 cans at a time. And you save all of the trouble of buying from hand to mouth.

THE SHOP AND RAILROAD NEWS

TWENTY MILLIONS FOR CARS.

Pennsylvania Places Orders for More Equipment.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 14.—The Pennsylvania railroad has asked for bids on 20,000 all-steel freight cars; the Baltimore and Ohio on 8,000 and the Chicago and Northwestern on 6,000, making a total of 34,000 cars, which are to be let soon. This will require an aggregate of 544,000 tons of steel. The Carnegie Steel company has been asked to bid on the plates.

The Jones & Laughlin Steel company is filled with orders until January, as is the Cambria Steel company, while the Lackawanna Steel company is taking new orders at a premium of from $1 to $3 per ton. The Carnegie company, including its rail department, is filled with orders to the extent of 83 per cent and for five weeks ahead on all finished steel, excepting rails, but will not do so. None of the steel companies will accept orders for finished material for speculative buying. All orders for steel must go into actual construction.

It is rumored here that the Pennsylvania Railroad company is figuring on placing additional stock on the market, instead of bonds, to pay for the improvements. The additional cars will cost at least $20,000,000, and it is said that $80,000,000 in stock will be placed on the market.

SHOP GIRLS' NOVEL TRIP.

The Misses Della Laughlin and Kate Hartman, of the General Electric Lamp works, are on a trip to New York which is a novelty for women because of the manner in which it is being made. They are to earn the money en route by working in factories to defray expenses, only allowing themselves sufficient funds on the start to pay their fare to Toledo. They are now working in lamp works in that city to get enough money to carry them on the second stage of their journey. This plan is often worked by men, but it is the first time it has ever been tried by Fort Wayne women so far as known.

TO MOVE BIG SHOPS.

According to the following item from the Toledo Times it seems that the Lake Shore company is considering a proposition to move the big shops from Collinwood: "Anticipating that the Lake Shore railroad shops at Collinwood, near Cleveland, are to be moved to Air Line Junction, Toledo, in the near future, the city council will be asked within the next few weeks to vacate a portion of Junction avenue which separates two large pieces of property owned by the road in Air Line Junction. The Collinwood shops represent an investment of nearly a million of dollars and the property here is considered an ideal location for them in event of a change being made."

J. H. Kamm resumed his duties at the Pennsylvania shops this morning, after an absence of a week or two, during which he buried his ten year old daughter, Eleanor Helen Kamm.

Robert Pfeiffer was struck on the back of the head by a sledge hammer in the hands of a companion yesterday afternoon and the member was severely bruised. The men were engaged in adjusting an ashpan when the accident happened.

W. J. Burke, general agent of the Northern railway and one of the best known railway men of the middle west, died in Cincinnati yesterday, aged 55 years. Mrs. Burke is visiting the Alaskan-Yukon exposition and has been notified of her bereavement.

The Eckart Packing company installed a pump at a new well at the plant on West Main street yesterday and the plant is now well supplied with water. The latter is of excellent quality and is being used for domestic purposes by all the people in that neighborhood.

Foreman A. L. Sonnenberg, of the East car shops, will start upon an eastern trip early next week which will consume about two weeks. He will be accompanied by Mrs. Sonnenberg and they will visit friends at Belmar, N. Y., and also take in the sights at New York City.

E. J. Loney, a Pennsylvania pipefitter, accompanied his wife to a lake near Lima, Ind., this morning, where she will remain several weeks if he finds the sojourn beneficial to her health. Mrs. Loney passed through a surgical operation a month ago and has not yet fully recovered.

J. A. Haslop called at the Pennsylvania planning mills to see the employees this morning, which was his first appearance there since last November, when he was taken sick. He is improving and hopes to be able to resume his duties at the shop in a few weeks.

Railway construction work in the west and northwest is practically at a standstill at present, owing to lack of men. The harvest is on and the wages paid to the men in the wheat fields is greater than that paid by the road builders and the laborers have taken advantage of it.

Daniel J. Flock, a pipefitter from the Wellsboro shops of the Pennsylvania, is visiting his Fort Wayne relatives and friends. He formerly resided here and worked in the company's shops. Mr. Flock has been sick several months and is still unable to work. He will pass to the pension list next year.

For the next week Lot Barker, of the Wabash shops, will have as guests his brother, William Barker, sr., and his nephew, William Barker, Jr., of Bristol, England, and his niece, Mrs. Hannah Cooper, who arrived in the city this afternoon. From this city the visitors will go to Ohio for a short stay and then leave for their home across the sea.

William and Frank Madison, father and son respectively, were callers at the Pennsylvania machine shops this morning to see the men who were their shopmates for a number of years. Mr. Madison has been on the employees' retired list for a number of years and his son Frank is now located at Roseville, Cal., where he is foreman of a machine shop. He learned his trade at the Pennsylvania shops.

The Pennsylvania and the Nickel Plate anticipate the largest week-end excursion parties out of this city next Saturday and Sunday they have had for two years. Inquiries by telephone and otherwise concerning train service indicate as much. The Lake Shore is expecting a larger crowd out of Fort Wayne on that occasion also, though that company looks for its main business from the towns on the main line.

AUTO GOES DOWN EMBANKMENT

WORE LAURA'S HOSE AND NEVER HAD A PIN

Negro Woman Arrested and Acquitted—The City Court Cases.

"Why, Judge, that nigger nevah had no pin. Pin? Why he's a settin' right there now with my stockin's on cause he ain't got none of his own."

Thus spoke Laura Gilmore in the city court this morning as she rolled her eyes until she showed the white and tried to wither her accuser with scornful glances. Laura is so black that she would give charcoal a beating and she had been keeping house for one John Dismuth until John chased her out and she had him arrested for being drunk. She didn't care so much about the fact that he was drunk but she thought he had a razor with which he intended to make exploration with her interior as the objective point.

She was accused of having gone to his house, where she had formerly reigned as head of the household and taken a pin that he valued at $2. She said he didn't have "no pin" and the judge believed her and let her go.

Saw Balloons and Things.

Frank D. Vied was not in court to answer a charge of drunkenness. Lieut. Lapp found him in his cell this morning entertaining a flock of balloons and flying machines and the case was continued.

Frank Vold, a vag, was given an hour to get out of town. Harry Dill, a plain drunk was given the same opportunity and George Yeager and Fred Spangler got off under suspended fines.

MISSISSIPPI STILL RISING.

Crest of Flood Expected to Pass St. Louis Soon.

St. Louis, July 14.—The flood in the Mississippi river here was 4.5 feet above the danger mark today, the gauge reading 34.5 feet. The government weather bureau predicted that within twenty-four hours the water would reach between 35 and 35.5 feet, which will be the crest.

The farmers of Missouri have lost thousands of dollars in destroyed crops and washed away lands. The railroads will have to rebuild many miles of tracks which are now in the water. Trains and mails are still greatly delayed.

Indianapolis, July 14.—Senator Albert J. Beveridge unexpectedly left for Washington at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon in response to an important telegram received in the morning. It was the understanding yesterday that Senator Beveridge was going back to Washington to suggest reductions in the tariff bill which he felt should be made.

JAILED FOR GUN TOTING.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 14.—J. E. Wilds, a detective of Cleveland, Ohio, was fined $200 and sentenced to nine months in jail yesterday for violating the new West Virginia "pistol totting" law. Wilds, it is said, went to Fallonsburg, W. Va., Monday to hire men to work in the "open shop" tin plate mills.

MOTORMAN HIT WITH BRICK.

Evansville Street Car Man is Violently Assaulted.

Evansville, Ind., July 14.—Charles Schaus, a motorman, was struck in the temple by a brick last night and severely wounded. This was the most serious case of violence thus far attempted in the car strike here.

While able to run his car into the downtown station Schaus was weak from loss of blood when he reached there.

On the failure of Monday's negotiations to procure a settlement of the strike it was expected that there would be a renewal of demonstrations from the rowdy element. The police renewed their efforts last night to prevent attacks on cars.

Schaus, the victim of last night's attack, was a striker, but went back two weeks ago.

The rivers are overflowing their banks, causing much damage to agriculture.

MARRIED TOO MANY TO KEEP TRACK OF THEM

Johnson, Alias Madson, Old
Bigamist, Tells a Hot
Story of Career.

San Francisco, July 14.—Christian C. Johnson, who was taken from San Jose today to serve seven years in the penitentiary for bigamy, is reported to have confessed that he is the mysterious "John Madson" wanted in many parts of the country for matrimonial ventures and systematic swindling of women under promise of marriage.

Johnson's alleged confession, which is printed today in a local newspaper, is so full of inconsistencies and so at variance with statements he has made since his arrest in this city last week that the police authorities are not inclined to give it full credence.

The confession says he has been married to so many women he can't count them off hand.

"In 1906," he says, "I quit my business of buying horses and from that day to this have been making my living by marrying and making love to women, getting their money and then deserting them."

One of his most amazing feats, according to his own confession, was making love to ten women at one time in Portland, Ore. Johnson declares that in every instance he spent the money he received upon the victim herself.

"They kept me broke all the time" is the way he expressed it.

He married the first of his many wives in Springfield, Mass., in 1905. I married only one woman under the name of John Madson," Johnson declared. "Her name was Jones. If I remember rightly, Ada Jones. I got $1,800 from her because she said she loved me. I could have got $50,000."

Funny Creatures From Hawaii Attract Attention at Seattle.

Seattle, July 14.—One of the most interesting exhibits to be found at the Alaska-Tukon-Pacific exposition is in the fisheries building and it is the collection of fishes imported from the Hawaiian islands. There are no less than one hundred of these funny specimens of almost every conceivable size, shape, form and color imaginable. Some are black and yellow, others a pale green, while some are tri-colored with specks and stripes resembling an American flag.

Their tints are as gorgeous as the rainbow and as radiant as a butterfly. Their shapes are odd in the extreme. Some have one head of an anti-eater, others are more than half-head with eyes in the top of the head. One particular variety have more the appearance of butterflies than fish and move about as gracefully as a sunbeam upon a wave. This is the first importation of live fish ever taken from the Hawaiian islands and their unique appearance causes thousands of visitors to linger about the aquariums looking upon their pristine beauty in wonder and amazement.

OBITUARY

John McIntosh was born in Allen county, Ind., near New Haven, Sept. 2, 1847; died at his home in Hoagland, July 5, 1909, aged 66 years, 10 months and 6 days.

He was one of the pioneers of Allen county. He enlisted in the 11th Indiana battery Feb. 28, 1862, and was one of the hercest engagements of the civil war, having taken part in the battles of Chickamauga, Lookout Mountain, Mission Ridge and several others. He was made corporal of the battery to which he belonged and was honorably discharged from service March 3, 1865. He was a member of the Union Veteran Legion of Fort Wayne.

On Dec. 1, 1885, he was united in marriage to Emily Harrod, who still survives him. To this union were born four children, Della, who in her infancy preceded him to the spirit land; Mrs. Fred Fry, of Port Wayne

"When I was four years old a burn came upon my scalp. It would make me a thick crust overnight, itching and burning terribly. My mother had many hundreds of dollars trying to find a doctor who could cure this humor, but none of them could ever help it even a little bit. At the age of fifteen years I got another one, and after that the sores became marvellous. They would soak my hair out before I could comb it. My hair came off in spots and my head was in a bad shape.

"About this time a friend of my father suggested he try Cuticura for me. My father took the Cuticura and verified the Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Resolvent. I used them faithfully and to my surprise they stopped the itching at once, like cooling balm. In a week my head was clean from the scab but my face was red and inflamed, but I had experienced more relief from the terrible itching and burning than ever before. I did not expect to be cured, as I thought that nothing but a doctor could cure me. After some time all the itching and Cuticura was cheaper than doctors.

"After some time, to my surprise, I awoke to the fact that my head was cured. It was as free from the disease as though I had never suffered. I am now healthy and have never had a sign of my old trouble since. It was cured by Cuticura. I owe health, happiness and life to Cuticura. Every one thought it was incurable. I used to dream sometimes that these cures but thought it never could be true. Fancy a cure made the dream come true. Fancy a cure made the bed until ten or eleven o'clock the scratching her head! I couldn't help it either the itching was so terrible, night and day. It is a wonder I lived through it.

"I am glad to see it written by my old neighbors. Mr. Florence A. Zeller, Gettich, Box 503, Hallowsell, Me., Feb. 9 and 13, 1909."

Cuticura Remedies are sold everywhere. Retail prices: Cuticura Soap, Small Size, 10c; Large Size, 25c; Cuticura Ointment, 15c; Cuticura Resolvent, 75c. Sold by Druggists and Dealers.

Mrs. Barrett Van Buskirk and Allen McIntosh, of Hoagland.

Brother McIntosh was a earnest Christian, a man of prayer, a loving father and a good husband and neighbor. He was always careful to train his children right and to instill into their minds the principles of truth and honesty. He united with the Church of God in his early married life and remained a consistent member until his death. He bore his illness, which extended over a period of several months with patience and fortitude, always anxious not to bother others but to help himself in every possible way.

He leaves to mourn his loss a wife, three children, one brother, eleven grandchildren and a host of relatives and friends. He will be greatly missed in the community by a large number of people who loved to speak of him as "Uncle John."

BOWEL COMPLAINT IN CHILDREN.

When six months old the little daughter of E. N. Dewey, a well-known merchant of Agnewville, Va., had an attack of cholera infantum. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was given and effected a complete cure. This remedy has proven very successful in cases of bowel complaint in children and when given according to the plain printed directions can be relied upon with perfect confidence. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. For sale by all druggists.

It is believed by at least one writer that it is because baldness in women has nearly always been studiously concealed that no gentle way of evading the blunt word "bald" has been evolved, in contrast with the many ways of dodging "fat," "Stout" (which really means sturdy), "portly," "comfortable" and "embonpoint" are instances of this evasion. But "bald" always remains "bald."

HELP FOR THOSE WHO HAVE STOMACH TROUBLE.

After doctoring for about twelve years for bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my wife one box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—SAMUEL BOYER, Folsom, Iowa. This medicine is for sale by all druggists. Sample free.

MAGNETS SEE PROSPERITY.

Corey and Gray Praise Low Tariff Revision.

New York, July 14.—Both William E. Corey, president of the United States Steel corporation, who arrived yesterday from Europe, and Judge Elbert H. Gray, chairman of the corporation's board of directors, who sailed for France yesterday, had a kind word to say for the results of the tariff revision's efforts.

Mr. Corey said that in his belief "almost everybody is satisfied with the tariff bill as it now stands," and predicted that the result of the bill would be a "speedy acceleration of prosperity and a long era of good times."

Judge Gray was equally optimistic. "The new bill should be generally satisfactory," he said, "and President Taft, the cabinet and congress are entitled to great credit for their work. The revision has been continuously downward. Besides, it will improve rapidly from now on and steel will come into its own again, with new high records."

CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY THE BEST AND SUREST.

E. Herrington, of Mount Aerial, Ky. This is the universal verdict of all who use this remedy. Its cures are so prompt and effectual that people take pleasure in recommending it. For sale by all druggists.

Andy Glutting says Cleveland is a mascot.

The City band promises new music in the near future.

Twenty-five German republicans in the Wabash shops will vote for Cleveland.

Saturday William Gause, the well known fronteur, resigned as manager of the Gause Agricultural works because of a disagreement with the directors of the institution.

Miss Eliza Nestle, known professionally as "Fairy Queen," is in the city with her parents. Miss Nestle has been with a comic opera company in the west. Mr. Charles Nestle is still with the show.

Col. R. S. Robertson, Hon. Robert Stratton and Col. C. A. Zollinger have been appointed a committee to invite the attendance of Generals Sherman and Rosecrans and Governors Hooley and Porter to the Fort Wayne encampment in August.

This afternoon Henry M. Williams filed in the circuit court written pleas for an injunction restraining the councilmen from purchasing the feeder canal for the city. Judge O'Rourke heard the case and granted a temporary order restraining the city from making the canal purchase until July 22.

The reasons alleged against the purchase is that the title to the property is not valid and that the water is impure.

The city council meets tonight to give Fort Wayne a water supply. On the present system over $300,000 has been expended, and today the city has not water enough to last a week if the dry weather continues. Two propositions will come up in the council tonight. One is to lay pipes to the St. Joe river at a cost of $50,000, and the other is to purchase the canal for $15,000, getting water from the St. Joe river five miles above the city.

Last Saturday evening about thirty-five citizens met at the Custer house for the purpose of organizing a new building and loan association. Charles Barner was chosen chairman and John T. Pranger secretary. The capital stock has been fixed at $100,000, which will be divided into shares of $200 each. A committee consisting of John Vasserbach, George Match, Christ Bohn, John Pranger and Charles Barner were appointed to draft a constitution.

It is estimated that England annually consumes the milk of 5,000,000 cows.

The Flies are Here

Now in full force, and if you are not careful they will catch you napping. Expense is no excuse for harboring a lot of troublesome flies in your kitchen and dining room when you can buy a HEAVY SCREEN DOOR FOR $1.00, with a pair of spring hinges and a hook and knob thrown in. Screen wire is so cheap, in fact, that you cannot afford to go without it.

We carry it in all widths from 24 inches to 42 inches, all of the same strictly reliable grade.

Either color—pearl or black. It's an odd window that we can't fit with a screen. Tell us the size in inches and we'll give you just the thing.
